ALUMNI REELECT THREE OFFICERS

Chicagoans Elect Paul Kirchner New President

CHAPTER MEMBERS VOTE TO LET DOWN BARS ON CHRISTMAS BANQUET

CHICAGO.—New officers of the Cook County Chapter, under direction of Paul Kirchner, '18-'19, have outlined their fall program which will open with a meeting Tuesday, October 28.

Other new officers are Charles J. Pirola, '10-'14, vice-president, and Arthur R. Flood, '37-'38, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided at the July 29 meeting that the annual Christmas banquet, sponsored by the Chicagoans, will no longer be a strictly stag affair, but that the wives, mothers, and girl friends of the alumni will be welcome.

Cook County unit held its annual golf tournament, June 10, at the West Gate Country Club.

Brother David Schneider was guest of honor at the evening banquet. He was presented with a baseball autographed by members of the Cincinnati Reds. He was also given an ancient meat cleaver which, according to F. C. Quirk, "was swiped from David's barber kit early in the century."

The Brother Dave golf trophy was won by B. B. Lear.

Wins Popularity Vote

AKRON, O.—Urban (Nig) Pfeffer, '39-'41, who was signed by the New York Yankees last spring and farmed out to Akron, was voted the team's most popular player. The former Puma third baseman played at center field with the Mid-Atlantic league pennant winners.

DIGS DEEP

MSGR. WILLIAM ARNOLD

Figuratively speaking, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William R. Arnold, Chief of Chaplains, U. S. A., dug deep when he turned the first spade of earth for the regimental chapel at Arlington, Va., the first of 555 chapels to be built in the nation's army camps. Msgr. Arnold, who was a leader in St. Joseph's military units from '98 until '02, played a big part in getting an O. K. stamped on the $12,816,880 project.

Fort Wayne Holds First Golf Tourney

FORT WAYNE.—The Rev. Joseph J. Hennes, '13-'16, fired away for an 84 at the Elks Country Club to take top honors, Sunday, August 3, in the first alumni golf tournament sponsored by the Fort Wayne Chapter.

The Rev. Stan Manoski, '31-'33, was second with an 85, and Edward Ernst, '10-'13, was third with an 86. The Rev. Thomas Heilman, '29-'33, won the blind bogey. James Hipskind, '20-'24, triumphed in the four-hole special.

Following the tourney, the Very Rev. Dr. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., was principal speaker at a banquet in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

A highly successful business and social meeting was held at the Knights of Columbus Club earlier in the summer, according to Carl Neuer, '14-'16, secretary of the Fort Wayne Unit. More than fifty members with their wives and girl friends attended. After the business meeting, games were played and dancing was enjoyed.

Youngsters Await 1961 St. Joe Prom

Two future St. Joe students, and a probable prom queen were born into the families of alumni since last issue of CONTACT. Richard Scharf, '34-'38, assistant coach at St. Joe, became the father of Richard Daniel; Carl Vandagriff, '28-'34, announcer for station WOWO, Fort Wayne, became the father of Eric, and Gerald W. LaFontain, '29-'35, chemist at the National Carbon Company, Fostoria, became the father of Dwynn Ann.

Hipskind Holds Second Term As President

FATHER SEIMETZ, DEAN FRONING SPEAK AT EVENING BANQUET

Alumni Days, June 15 and 16, attracted one hundred and seventy-seven former students to the campus.

Four new national officers were elected, and three were re-elected. Those re-elected were: President, J. Henry Hipskind, '05-'11, Fort Wayne; secretary-treasurer, Edward Fischer, '28-'34, Rensselaer; historian, the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., '13-'18, Collegeville. New officers named were: First-vice-president, John Metzner, '06-'11, Delphos; second vice-president, F. C. Quirk, '21-'23, Chicago; executive committeemen, Rev. Carl Schnitz, '16-'21, Gary, and F. J. Wellman, '15-'20, Lafayette.

Thirty members of the class of '31 took part in that group's tenth anniversary reunion.

A business meeting followed the banquet, Sunday evening. A Mass for deceased alumni was followed, Monday morning, by a golf tournament and a softball game.

Minutes for the business meeting are as follows:

The annual national business session was opened at 6:30 p. m. in the college dining hall by President J. Henry Hipskind.

Minutes of the 1940 meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $494.47. However, the treasurer explained that a check of $252 would be written within a few days for Contact. This, he pointed out, would lower the balance to $242.47. The bill for

The Scene Changes

A landmark disappeared from the campus, this summer; the baseball grandstand was torn down. It had become an eyesore, and practically a menace to life and limb.

For some alumni, the grandstand marked the spot where the notorious student sit-down strike took place in '13. For many grads, now grandfathers, it stood as the structure in which they carved their initials on; warm spring day many afternoons ago. Generations of students think of it as a shield which stood between them and the prefect in the days when smoking was taboo. To most grads, a mention of the grandstand brings to mind thrilling games which featured the pitching of Joe Lill, or Fred Fehrenbacher, or Sal Dreiling.

Even though the old stand will no longer echo with the crash of a foul ball on its tin roof and the din of rooters during a ninth inning rally, it will exist in memories until the last of the present alumni are gone.

Class '31 Starts Something

ANNIVERSARY REUNIONS will probably be a regular feature of the Alumni Day celebration each summer, in light of the successful tenth anniversary gathering held by the class of '31. Invitations sent out by Fathers Louis Duray and Lenord Cross brought 32 of the 99 members of the class to the campus. Next alumni day official reunions will be held for the classes of '32, '27, '22, '17, '12, '07, '02, and '97.

Buren Reminiscences

MEMORIES of the laundry line bubbled out of Father Tom Buren, '28-'34, when he saw the laundry room door. He recalled how students would stand in line for laundry distribution right after the noon meal on Saturday. He concluded his reminiscences with, "Here's where we lost our socks and our tempers."

What A Difference

A CONFESSION was made by a member of the class of '31, when he said, "I heard Art Kassel played for the Spring Formal. I remember when we used to slip out of the dorm at midnight and go over to the Raleigh Club to listen to his broadcast." Times have changed.

The Old Mare's Example

An old mare, now grazing in Elysian fields, taught a lesson we Alumni might con.

Let us call her Calamity Jane, because that was her name.

Her faded bay coat matched the nauseating complexion of a sea sick Japanese. Her body was long; her legs short. Her back swung lower than Sweet Chariot; her belly sagged like the belly of an overfed dachshund.

A merry-go-round horse gave more promise of life than she did—until a saddle was on her back and a rider was up. Presto! Calamity Jane was transfigured. Up jerked her head; up shot her ears. Her knee action became high and graceful. At that moment, we forgot the running sore on her withers, the enlarged fetlocks, the ill kept mane, and the stringy tail. We stood and marveled at the spirit of that glorified old oats burner.

What is the connection between Calamity Jane and the Alumni?

Well, it's this way: Alumni Associations, like old mares, have physical characteristics, characteristics that can be measured in terms of numbers. For instance, Calamity Jane was fifteen hands high; the Alumni Association is two thousand six hundred members strong.

In physical characteristics, many associations are ahead of us. They have larger rosters; they have more members in Who's Who; they have a greater number of men who have cellars full of new dimes, and they claim more inventors and authors.

We need not worry much about our physical characteristics. They will be bettered with the years. True, we are celebrating a Golden Jubilee. But it takes an Alumni Association about fifty years to get weaned from diapers.

Over and above physical characteristics, old mares and Alumni Associations have a spirit. It may be well fed; it may be anemic, or it may be mediocre, but spirit it is.

For a robust Alumni spirit we have to back St. Joe; talk St. Joe; boost St. Joe. If there are any of our friends who do not know that we are St. Joe men, then we have been holding out on the spirit.

We might give ground in physical characteristics, but in spirit we need not take a back seat to anyone.

Calamity Jane didn't.

Starts New Parish

EL DORADO, Ark.—With the Holy African Martyrs of Uganda as its patrons, a new parish for the Colored has been established here by the Rev. R. J. Marmon, '16-'20. It is believed to be the first parish in the United States to bear the title of Martyrs of Uganda. After 14 years of service in the missions of North Central and Northwest Arkansas, Father Marmon was sent here a year ago to serve as chaplain of Warner Brown hospital, and to lay the groundwork for the new parish.

Turn Back the Clock

THIRTY-NINE YEARS rolled by and a lot of water went down the Iroquois River from the time John Lemper left St. Joseph in the summer of '02 until he returned the summer of '41.

The alumnus from Norwood, Pa., stopped off at the campus for a few hours with wife, daughter, and grandchildren, who were visiting friends in Indiana.

He was thrilled by the progress made by his Alma Mater. Alumnus Lemper came to the campus bearing a mental picture of the college as it was at the dawn of the century. During his tour of the grounds he stopped every few feet to compare the new with the old. He spoke of such things long gone as the military room, the Minion and the bowling alley shed.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS have a different meaning for the current crop of St. Joseph students than they had for student generations of the past. When students speak of telephone numbers now they mean the numerical symbols found in the little red book before such names as Sally, Kate, et

Up to a few years ago, when one student asked another his telephone number he had reference to application, conduct, discipline and manners. In each he was rated with a number from one to four inclusive. A student who had a telephone number 1111 was like unto the angels; one whose phone number was 4444 was just as good as on the Monon. The usual telephone number given was 2121.

PIONEER PRESIDENT Father Augustin (Daddy) Seifert was the subject of the following anecdote told by Henry B. Fronin at the Alumni Association banquet:

The nights were getting colder and the heating unit to the Main Building was not yet complete. There were about forty more feet of pipe to lay. Father Seifert promised the students that he would have heat by the following night; so the next day the president of the college put on a pair of overalls and went to work on the pipe.

ANOTHER PIONEER, Father Eugene Grimm was the subject of one of Mr. Fronin's anecdotes. It seems that Father Grimm seldom met anyone who had the same Christian name that he bore. And so when Eugene Lonsway came to the campus in '99 it tickled Father Grimm. Every time the priest met the student he would beam all over and say, "Vell, vell, Eucheen, how you are?"

Alumnus Follows Newspaper Game In Decatur

DECATUR, Ind.—Arthur R. Holthouse, secretary-treasurer of the Decatur Daily Democrat, went into newspaper work after leaving St. Joe in 1912, and has been there ever since.

"Life has been good to me," said Alumnus Holthouse. "I have been able to work; rear three children; haven't had much sickness, and really enjoy sticking my nose into local affairs, because the business demands it."

"Frequently I think of the boys I knew at St. Joe, Bill Butler, Jim Whitcomb and many others, some of whom I see around here. I shall never forget Father Bart and shall always cherish the memory of peace and tranquility enjoyed in my boyhood at school. I like to think of the hikes in the country, the rabbit hunts, the old smoking club, for men only, and the basketball and football games." In speaking of the St. Joe of today, Mr. Holthouse said, "I sincerely hope the Golden Jubilee year sees the fulfillment of the effort to raise the fund for the fieldhouse. It will forever stand as a glorious monument to the ideals of St. Joe in its mission to build Christian manhood and to those who believe in it."

DALTON EDITS BULLETIN

John A. Dalton, Jr., '28-'34, is editor of a very snappy news bulletin called Knight Letter, published by Mansfield Council 87, Knights of Columbus, Mansfield, O.

John Kemper, '30-'31, is a machinist at New Idea, Inc., Coldwater, O. He is the father of a six months old boy.

YOCIS GOES TO CAMP

Jerome Yocis, class of '40, is in Company A, 113th Combat Engineers, 38th Division, Camp Shelby, Miss.

JUBILARIAN

MSGR. A. J. COPENOLLE

Two northern Indiana alumni, Msgr. A. J. Copenolle and the Rev. Otto Peters, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their ordinations, during the past summer. Msgr. Copenolle, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Earl Park, and dean of the Lafayette district, was elevated by the Holy Father to the rank of Papal Chamberlain. Father Peters is pastor of St. Mary's Church, Dunnington.

Stick To Baseball

MARIA STEIN, O.—The Leugers brothers, Henry, '35-'37, and Joe, of the class of '41, played some grade A baseball with Cassella during the past summer. Both former Puma moundsmen are sons of Herman H. Leugers, '08-'11. Joe is junior accountant at Patterson Field, Dayton; Henry is scheduled for military training, Sept. 20.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Announcement is made of the approaching nuptials of Marjory Ellen Bowser, Fort Wayne, and James M. Coughlin, '39-'40, of Marion. The ceremony will take place in the late fall in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Fort Wayne. Alumnus Coughlin is associated with the S. S. Bowser Company.

MEET IN CAMP

FORT DEVINS, MASS.—Charles Saurer, '34-'36, of Akron, and, Captain Gilbert Esser, '12-'18, chaplain, have been talking St. Joe College at this U. S. Army post.

THE ROUNDUP

by

Coach Joe Dienhart

NATIONAL DEFENSE cut twenty-one men from our roster and left us holding a slim twenty-seven man squad and a nine-game schedule.

ONLY NINE LETTERMEN returned: Nick Scollard, All-State and All-Conference end from Indianapolis; Pete Varini, All-Conference fullback from Joliet; Conny Vanderkolk, end from Lafayette; Bill Smith, guard from Louisville; Wally Lenczyk, center from Chicago; Don Clark, Kankakee, and Stan Lapsys, Chicago, quarterbacks; Steve Theodosius, Joliet, and Stan Wisniewski, Chicago, halfbacks.

THE RANKS OF THE ALUMNI were swelled with the graduation of five valuable athletes: Robert Duax, Raymond Jurich, Richard Cody, Owen Thuerk, and Claude Hisey.

HOME COMING GAME is scheduled for Nov. 1, when the Pumas will face Carroll College, of Waukesha, Wis.

THE SCHEDULE: Sept. 19, at Butler (Friday night); Sept. 27, at Toledo; Oct. 5, at Loras, Dubuque, Iowa (Sunday); Oct. 11, Central Normal at Rensselaer; Oct. 18, at Illinois Wesleyan, Bloomington, Ill.; Oct. 25, at Detroit Tech; Nov. 1, Carroll (Homecoming); Nov. 9, St. Norbert at Rensselaer (Sunday); Nov. 20, Valparaiso at Rensselaer (Thanksgiving).

Contact was due, the treasurer explained, because at the 1940 meeting the association decided that every alumnus should receive the publication during the coming year, and that the association would pay for all alumni who did not subscribe.

The auditing committee, composed of Ed Ernst, H. C. Schmal, and J. B. Vurpillat, approved the treasurer's report.

As historian, the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., reported that Phase, the St. Joe College year-

St. Joe's Progress Impresses Alumni

book, has compiled a 50-year history of the institution.

In reporting the activities of Cook County Chapter, F. C. Quirk, president of that unit, said that the organization had held four business meetings during the year, also a banquet at the Sherman Hotel, and a golf tournament and dinner in honor of Brother David.

Jack Jones, president of the Calumet Club, said that work has developed in his area to such a point that it has been practically impossible to get the alumni together. However, he promised that the Calumet's financial report would be one of the best.

Henry Contant, newly-elected president of the Fort Wayne unit, announced that a highly successful summer meeting has been held, and that a golf tournament is being arranged for August.

Edward Burns, president of the Indianapolis unit, said that since the chapter's last meeting in November one half of the group's officers have been sent to Camp Shelby.

Ernest Hoyng said that the Midwestern Ohio Chapter would like to see a tournament started so that the various units would vie with one another to determine which one could get the most donors for the fieldhouse fund.

Ferdinand Wellman reported for the Lafayette Chapter; the Rev. James Maloney for the Louisville Chapter; the Rev. Henry Schaeffer for the Cincinnati Chapter; John Metzner for Delphos, and Edmund Wills for St. Joe Valley. No member was present to report on Akron, Dayton, Cleveland, Tiffin, Toledo, and Saginaw chapters.

Jerre Haugh moved that faculty investigate the cost of having lights put on the chapel tower clock, and that if the cost did not exceed $100, the installation should be made and the bill presented to the alumni association. This was seconded by the Rev. William Deutsch. It carried.

The secretary read the followlowing ballot of officers, selected by the executive committee, for the assembly's approval. President, J. Henry Hipskind; first vice-president, John Metzner; second vice-president, F. C. Quirk; secretary-treasurer, Edward Fischer; historian, the Rev. Sylvester Ley, and executive committeemen, Ferd Wellman, and the Rev. Carl Schnitz. Mr. Wills moved that the secretary be instructed to record a unanimous approval of the assembly. Mr. Haugh seconded the motion.

The Rev. James Fitzgerald objected. After having a re-reading of the minutes which explained that at the 1940 meeting the assembly decided that the executive board should draw up a ballot of officers for the association's approval. Father Fitzgerald withdrew his objection.

Mr. Wills' motion was voted upon and carried.

A lengthy discussion followed concerning the advisability of amending the constitution so that the roster of officers would include a three-man election board which would be elected annually by the assembly. This board, instead of the executive board, would submit the list of officers for approval. Father Ildephonse Rapp moved that a motion in this regard be tabled. It carried.

A gift of $118 was collected for the sisters as a token of appreciation of the alumni for the banquet.

Scheiber Trains For Navy Air Corps

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Richard Scheiber, class of '41, was sent to the U. S. Naval Air Station, here, after having taken preliminary training at Glenview, Ill. The young pilot soloed after only six hours of training.

The meeting was closed with wonderful addresses by the Rev. Joseph Seimetz, of Decatur, Ind., and Henry B. Froning, of South Bend.

Father Seimetz took as his theme the idea that secular education may develop great scholars, but because of its neglect of morality it cannot develop good men. He pointed out that a nation cannot be better than the moral standards of its individuals. He lauded St. Joseph's as one of the colleges that is fighting to uphold the moral strength of our country.

Mr. Froning, dean of the department of Chemistry at the University of Notre Dame, explained how a boarding school, more than any other thing, develops a young man's personality and his ideas of good sportsmanship and fair play. In his reminiscences he recalled some of the incidents that happened in his days at St. Joseph's from '99 until '02 and from '06 until '08, instances that helped mould the personalities of the young men involved.

The Very Rev. Dr. Joseph Marling, provincial of the Precious Blood, was called upon for a few remarks.

The Very Rev. Dr. Aloys Dirksen, president of St. Joseph's, announced that the Fieldhouse Fund, in pledges and contributions, had reached $29,686, through approximately 400 contributions.

Father Ley named as judges for the alumni essay contest, the Rev. Steven Tatar, Al Halker, and Delbert Welch.

A Mass in memory of deceased Alumni, read Monday morning, was followed by a softball game and a golf tournament.

The class of '31 softball team defeated a team made up of members of various classes.

In golf, Father Henry Schaeffer, of Cincinnati, was low net winner, and the Rev. Fred Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., was low gross winner.
